

Promoted by:

Facilitated by:

EPSC Webinar

Wednesday 20th October 2021

15:00 – 16:00 (CEST)

14:00 – 15:00 (BST)

EPSC

antea[®]group

EPSC webinars facilitated by knowledgeable solution providers offer the opportunity to learn and discuss on a specific safety topic.

Click here to register

Ammonia as an energy carrier

Ammonia has been used in the chemical industry since the early 20th century, mostly for the fertilizer industry.

In the past few years the use of ammonia as an energy carrier has increased. This means that the user base of ammonia is shifting towards different sectors.

What can these sectors learn from the ammonia industry?

Aspects to be discussed in an interactive setting

- What are the benefits and drawbacks of ammonia as an energy carrier
- What are the dangers of ammonia
- What can be learned from the ammonia industry
- Our experiences in the Netherlands

